

Aryaka partners with ASV Platforms for Unified SASE as a Service in Australia and New Zealand

ASV Platforms says Aryaka solution meets need for speed, security and simplicity among enterprise and government customers

Santa Clara, CA, March 5, 2025 – Aryaka, the leader in Unified SASE as a Service, today announced a partnership with ASV Platforms for the Australia and New Zealand (ANZ) markets.

ASV Platforms becomes the premium strategic partner for the region as Aryaka unveils significant investment and expansion of its global go-to-market strategy including senior channel leadership appointments in the US, APAC and EMEA, and new partners in ANZ and Japan.

ASV Platforms provides cloud-first secure networking solutions to enterprises and government customers. The partnership gives the company access to Aryaka’s Unified SASE as a Service high-performance secure networking platform.

According to recent research by Dell’Oro Group, the global SASE market is growing at 12% a year and will reach US$17bn by 2029, 90% of which will be accounted for by single-vendor SASE.

Aryaka’s award-winning Unified SASE as a Service enables organisations to consolidate network and security teams, simplify operations, eliminate integration costs, reduce vendor management overheads and improve application performance and security posture. The company has leveraged investment in AI to deliver improvements to performance, security and observability of the platform.

Ian Woollett, Chairman of ASV Platforms said: “We’re excited to bring the market leading Unified SASE as a Service solution to this region, helping our business and government customers achieve unparalleled network performance, security and agility. Aryaka’s superb technology combined with newly simplified packaging and pricing makes it quicker and easier for customers to provision the right capacity where and when they need it, secure and modernise their networks and simplify operations.”

Nitin Ahuja, Vice President and General Manager of Asia Pacific, Aryaka said: “Aryaka has made ANZ a strategic priority and with our recently expanded support in the region, Aryaka is poised for major growth. Working closely with the ASV Platforms team, we’ll help more organisations across the region to benefit from Unified SASE as a Service.”

Nick Alagna, Global Channel Chief, Aryaka said: “We’ve built a second-to-none global network. With partners like ASV Platforms we’re now on a journey to build an equally high-performing global channel programme to put the right expertise and support in every major market.”
